Our drive to the lake

It was a hot summer day. The sky was blue and there were no clouds in the sky. My sister Gail said to me, "Let's ask Bill to drive us to the lake. "That's a great ideal" I said. Our big brother, Bill, had an old car. He loved to take people for rides in his car. Bill worked on it all the time. It made a lot of noise, but Bill said it could get anywhere.

We prepared sandwiches and cold drinks and put them in the car. We took our bathing suits and towels and got into the car. It was a long ride and we sang songs and told jokes the whole way. Halfway down the hill to the lake, the car started making funny noises.
